

SENIOR SUPPORT WORKER REQUIRED

Ivy Dene, 20-22 Doncaster Road, Knottingley, WF11 8NT

37.5 hours a week, £9.20 per hour.

Ivy Care is an empowering, proactive company that provides residential care services and support to people with learning disabilities and behaviours that can challenge.

The main purpose of this post will be to lead a team of support workers who are promoting a needs-led outcome- focused residential service meeting “Valuing People Now” principles and working within the mission statement and value base of Ivy Care to achieve the highest possible standards.

You will be required to support the Service Manager in providing a quality service to the people we support. As such, you will meet the personal support needs of the service users in a way which promotes dignity, privacy, respect, community integration and community participation. You will need to be flexible with your working hours as you may be required to work weekends in addition to night shifts on a rotational basis.

In return we can offer 28 days annual holiday, a work based pension, free parking, 12 week induction and mandatory training. Previous experience is essential although we would like to encourage people with the right values and passion to apply and make a difference. Level 3 Diploma in Health and social Care or equivalent required.
